

RAINBOW IDEAS – w/c 8th June

This is our precept for this half term 😊

- ✓ DECIDE what this half term's PRECEPT means to you
- ✓ THINK ABOUT your 'Lockdown Journey'
Go back to your 'BEFORE and AFTER Lockdown' notes. You could now have a new section: 'Coming out of Lockdown.'
- ✓ LISTEN AGAIN to me reading 'The Huge Bag of Worries'
We all have worries, especially at the moment. Decide what your worries are and what you can do with them...just like Jenny!
- ✓ LISTEN AGAIN to James and the Giant Peach, with Taika and Friends – it's free to download Follow the link below to watch the trailer for this wonderful reading of a Roald Dahl classic:

- ✓ READ a poem – maybe LEARN it BY HEART
'Advice from a Tree' by Ilan Shamir – it's on the next page!
- ✓ Some CULTURE in QUARANTINE
Read this article and find out more about an interesting way to use graffiti in lockdown. Can you name any of the plants in your garden or plants you can see when you go out walking?

Advice from a TREE

Stand tall and proud

Sink your roots into the earth

Be content with your natural beauty

Go out on a limb

Drink plenty of water

Remember your roots

Enjoy the view!
